I May Bend But I Will Not Break

By: Alecia Butler

Being a nursing major requires lots of focus, time, and effort. This semester I am taking several challenging classes. Throughout the semester, it seemed as if all my classes had assignments and/or test scheduled during the same time frame. Along with working, I had to manage my time and fit everything in my schedule. At times, I felt overwhelmed and discouraged to the point I wanted to throw in the towel. My faith was tested daily but I knew it was just an attack from the enemy. My difficult times only drew me closer to God. Numerous songs, scriptures, and prayers have helped me this semester. Through this difficult time, I realized that I may bend but I WILL NOT break. In Hebrews 13:5, God promises he will never leave us nor forsake us. God won't give you more than you can bear. If God bring you to it, he will bring you through it. I won't get discouraged as the semester comes to a close. I will do my part, pray, and give it to God. I know what my God is capable of. He is able to turn any situation around in my favor and he will not fail me! I know that no matter what my situation may be God is BIGGER than that! I will continue to trust in him because I know that's where my help comes from. I am a conqueror and I won't accept defeat.

My God is so big So strong and so mighty There's nothing my God cannot do
